How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you a pint of Pinex 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and soothes the inflamed membrane in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiaquil, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FOSTER GIRL MERITED PUNISHMENT RECEIVED

Advisory Board Commends Mrs. Hopkins' Actions In "Naughty" Girl Case

The advisory board of the Girls Industrial school commended the action of Mrs. E. N. Hopkins, matron of the school, in the case of Genevieve Foster who was locked up in a closet and fed on a bread and milk diet because she was incorrigible. Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin and Mrs. Aristide Pelta and Mrs. W. H. Dancy of this city, members of the board held a session yesterday to investigate the case and found that Mrs. Hopkins was doing the best that could be done under the circumstances. It appears that the Foster girl has a bad record in Portland from which city she was committed to the school and that she has a temper and a mean disposition among her other accomplishments. The advisory board held that Mrs. Hopkins was not inhumane in her treatment of the girl. The girl refused to work and was placed in solitary confinement and she then cut her arm with a piece of water glass which she smashed in the room. A straight jacket was then employed to keep her from harming herself.

Doctors Unable To Get Down To Brass Tacks

Charles Spieet was pegging away in the shoe shop of the Oregon State Training school for boys yesterday when he threw his head back to laugh at a joke that one of the boys suggested and swallowed a mouthful of brass tacks. He coughed immediately and relieved himself of some of the tacks but several of them remained among the missing.

The boy was taken to the training school hospital but has since suffered no pains and Superintendent Hale says the patient is resting easily though he undoubtedly still contains some of the tacks, how many is not known. Had the tacks been of steel it would have been possible to remove them with a magnet but the brass refuses to respond to the treatment.

Spieet was committed to the school from Stayton and was regularly employed in the training school shoe shop.

THINKS VISIT MEANS END OF WAR IS NEAR

France Arranging To Buy $160,000,000 Worth of Industrial Supplies

New York, Nov. 9.—Big business hailed as a possible forerunner of peace the five French industrial and commerce commissioners who came here today for the purpose of arranging the purchase of $160,000,000 worth of iron, steel, machinery and industrial supplies, when peace is concluded.

With them, the commissioners brought word that the United States probably will be the market in which France will do all her industrial trading hereafter, instead of with Germany. Machinery and building material to replace that wrecked during the war will be sought, and at the same time the commissioners, headed by Maurice Dammour, former consul general at New Orleans, will endeavor to establish a firmer reciprocal trading basis between France and the United States.

Business men saw in the visit at this time a suggestion that France believes the end of the war is in sight. Else, they argued, why should she be planning at this moment for her steel, iron and machines?

Dammour's message not only pleased business men, but it spread before their eyes the vision of even vaster orders when France again begins to open her mills.

MAY DECIDE MUCH DISCUSSED QUESTION

German Submarines On Way To Attack Transports, May Meet Dreadnaughts

Paris, Nov. 9.—Germany intends to launch her under-sea death crafts apparently, at allied troop transports around Salonika.

The hottest submarine attacks of the entire war are predicted for that vicinity as soon as the German fleet of submarines, known to be passing through the Mediterranean, can arrive off the Greek coast. Activity of the German raiders inside the Strait of Gibraltar is considered here merely incidental to the voyage.

The theory held here is that the fleet will not really launch its offensive until within striking distance of transports landing on the Greek, Bulgarian and Turkish coasts. It is supposed that the allies have anticipated and prepared for the attacks.

Practically all of Germany's new super-submarines have been dispatched to the near east.

Sarah Bernhardt At Home As Reviewed by Chicago Post, July 28th

Aaron M. Gollos and Lou M. Houseman, president and secretary of the Photoplay Releasing Company, gave a private exhibition of the "Sarah Bernhardt at Home" film at the Illinois Theatre yesterday at noon, for an audience consisting, for the most part, of exhibitors, exchange men and newspaper critics.

That this film meets the requirements of a feature as a drawing card and as an interesting picture is putting it mildly. In view of the fact that the Divine Sarah will make her farewell tour through the United States the coming Fall, the subject has been well chosen and excellently produced. The great tragedienne is shown in nearly all of her favorite haunts, and presented in quite a different manner from the usual run of such pictures. She is seen at tennis, on hunting trips, in her library and in her cozy corner. You might ask what would be so remarkably interesting about such a feature, but when witnessed it is quickly recognized as a film quite out of the ordinary, and much of the interest comes from just that source of appeal.

Both Mr. Gollos and Mr. Houseman were showered with congratulations upon the presentation of the Bernhardt pictures and much complimented for the dogged manner in which they worked to get these films out of wartime.

"Helping Me Wonderfully"

Waste food in the large intestine ferments and makes poison. That poison gradually but surely reaches your vital organs, and premature old age follows. A persistent headache, a little indigestion now and then, or biliousness or constipation may indicate the gradual approach of years of dragging down to health which permanently deprives you of pleasure and long life.

Don't say this doesn't mean you. The systems of four people out of every five are poisoned by waste food in the large intestine. Intestine-Fermin Tablets—drawless and harmless—will drive from the large intestine the poison-making microbes, and help create conditions that will resist most ailments—from headaches to heart failure. These Tablets possess the active properties of Bulgarian lactic acid, a success fully demonstrated by Prof. Metchnikoff, as a destroyer of the poison-producing germs originating in the large intestine.

A grateful business woman says: "They are helping me wonderfully."

Words of praise reach us every day. One man remarks: "I feel like a new man when he knows he wasn't. Intestine-Fermin Tablets are making him right. Don't neglect. Save your health, and know the joy of a long life."

J. C. Perry, SALEM, OREGON

Intestine-Fermin is made exclusively by The Berlin Laboratory, Ltd., 373 Fourth Ave., New York City

Europe into the United States.

"Sarah Bernhardt at Home" which is in two reels, will not be released on any regular program, the state-rights idea having been chosen by the Photoplay Releasing Company as the better way of marketing this feature. Some states, already sold, will hold it until the Madame herself is in this country, linking her screen showing with her appearance on the legitimate stage.
